

Contributor of the Month Archives

 Note

This award has been renamed to "Volunteer of the Month". For more information on that award, check: Volunteer of the Month Award.

Starting in January 2013, the OpenMRS community will highlight one of its volunteer contributors that have made significant and sustained contributions to the project. We'll be sharing peoples' stories of how they got involved with OpenMRS, how they contribute, and some other interesting things about their lives. We're looking forward to learning more about our fellow contributors and hope you will too!
