

OpenMRS ID

Introduction

OpenMRS ID is your key to participating in the OpenMRS community.

Due to spam, we are requiring users request access to our wiki via our helpdesk at <http://om.rs/helpdesk>.

If you already have one, sign in at: <https://wiki.openmrs.org/login.action>. If not, you should sign up for an OpenMRS ID: <https://id.openmrs.org>.

You are logged in.

Your OpenMRS ID: $user.name

E-mail Address: $user.email

Where can I use it?

You can use your OpenMRS ID many places in the OpenMRS community, including:

- Right here on the Confluence wiki system. You must request access from our help desk to use this!
- JIRA, our issue tracking system. You must request access from our help desk to use this!
- Our ID dashboard system, <https://id.openmrs.org>
- Atlas <https://atlas.openmrs.org>
- OpenMRS Talk communication hub

Creating your profile page on OpenMRS Talk

In order to build our community and get to know each other, we encourage community members (developers, implementers, etc.) to create a user profile on OpenMRS Talk, including basic information like your name, contact information, and a short biography.

Getting help

If you ever have problems with OpenMRS ID, open a support ticket. It's not necessary to be logged in to open a support ticket, so if you can't log in, please be sure to include contact information so we know who you are.
