Training Materials

Training is a crucial part of the continuity of any programme and this is why the training materials here are vital resources for the OpenMRS community.

On this page lives a wide range of materials that includes information that can be useful whilst carrying out an outreach to recruit new members or when training people to use the openmrs, training plans and presentations.