Merge Patient Data Project - software architecture

The Merge Patient Data Module

This is a module that merges patient data from one Openmrs instance to another. More details as how it can be deployed can be found here.

Architecture Diagram - General Overview

Export Process
Import Process

The import process is just a reverse of the Export.